

ALL FAIL TO IDENTIFY ASSAILANT

Hunt Will Have To Be Begun Anew Now

THE CHILD POSITIVE

None of the Men Held at Police Station Guilty

HE TOOK LONG CHANCE

Story of Man's Actions Shows Disregard for Consequences if Detected

HAVE YOU SEEN HIM?
Height about 5 feet, 10 inches. Weight, about 175. Face pockmarked or pimpled. Last seen dressed in black or dark coat, shirt, cap and trousers.

Above is an approximate description of the would-be despoiler of little Frances Smith. If you have seen anyone answering this description telephone the police department or The Tribune immediately.

Witness late today failed to identify any of the three suspects held for the assault on little Frances Smith. The child, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Redman agreed in declaring that the guilty man was not among the captives.

A stranger said to be believed by the police to be the assailant of little Frances Smith was arrested in connection with the attempted assault upon 4-year-old Frances Smith, 508 North Ninth street yesterday.

Until nearly noon the department denied that any arrests had been made, but it was later admitted that the men were being held.

Arrangements were made with Mrs. Smith and others who saw the assailant to be at central station at 3 o'clock this afternoon to attempt the identification of the criminal.

Talk of Reward
Public indignation was thoroughly aroused this morning, and early in the day Mayor John Dengler conferred with City Attorney A. H. Schubert in an effort to find some charter provision under which the mayor could offer a reward for the apprehension of the fiend.

A close perusal of the charter and ordinances, however, reveals no authority under which the mayor could offer the reward but it is possible that an attempt will be made to get the sheriff to offer one on the part of the county.

One Caught at West Salem
Prior to the police denial that any arrests had been made, Sheriff Chris J. Burns informed The Tribune that a man, answering the description, had been picked up by the marshal at West Salem and was brought to the local police station this morning in the automobile of William A. Bradley of that place.

Inquiry at the police station resulted in the declaration that no such man had been brought in there, but the fact was admitted later in the day.

The publication of the fiendish treatment of the Smith girl last night brought to light today several similar cases which the police claim were not reported.

opinion that the departure of Mrs. J. J. Poshling from her home next door may have led the man to believe that the child was alone.

Sitting on Steps
The little girl was sitting on the front steps when the stranger accosted her and asked her if she wanted a penny. She said she did. He then told her to walk out to the back yard, by the chicken coop, and he would give her the penny. She did as he directed, and he went around through the alley and met her near the barn. Still holding out the penny, he enticed her to the barn door, then picked up the 4-year-old and carried her into the building, immediately asking where her mother was.

In the meantime Mrs. Ledman prepared to take her departure, and Mrs. Smith upon accompanying her to the walk, missed the child and called, "Frances." The man in the barn ordered the child not to answer, but on the second call the little one cried out.

Escaped Through Window
As Mrs. Smith hurried to the barn the frightened child appeared at the door and said: "There's a man in there." Mrs. Smith saw the fellow scrambling through the window, but his dash up the alley toward La Crosse street was not fast enough to prevent Mrs. Ledman from getting a good look at him.

The fellow ran through the alley to La Crosse street, east to Tenth street, south to Badger, and it was not until he was going east on Badger that he slackened his pace.

As the man rounded the corner of Tenth and La Crosse streets another witness got a good description of him. Mrs. L. W. Meyer, 930 La Crosse street, was standing in her yard as he dashed past.

The women agree pretty well in the description they give. They say he was about 5 feet, 10 inches high, weight about 170 to 180, and was dressed in dark coat, shirt, trousers and cap. The little girl says he had brown eyes and his face was covered with pimples.

FIGHT SCHEDULED AT COUNCIL MEET

Police Chief Due for Grilling Is Gossip in City Hall Circles Today

When the common council, as a committee of the whole, meets soon to act upon the resolution of Alderman George B. Marvin, Jr., providing for the removal of Chief of Police Webber for alleged failure to enforce the winery ordinance, the latter official is booked for grilling at the hands of various councilmen, according to city hall gossip.

Members of the various committees of the council interested in the subject and decline to state just what questions will be put up to the chief. It is asserted, however, that the alleged failure to enforce the wine room ordinance will play an important part at the meeting, which, it is said, will resolve itself into an investigation of police department methods.

Chief Webber is not without friends in the council, however, and a battle royal is promised.

The date for the meeting has not been set but is subject to the call of Mayor John Dengler.

GEORGE BOISVIRT FUNERAL FRIDAY

George Boisvirt, aged 58 years, died at the La Crosse county hospital today. He was born in Prairie du Chien, Wis., on Feb. 19, 1853. He is survived by a wife, six children, and two brothers. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but services will be held at the home of his brother, John Boisvirt, 1018 Badger street, tomorrow.

JOHN ROGIE DIES.

John Rogie, 2303 Michel street, aged 3 years, died late last night at the Lutheran hospital of apoplexy, after an illness of four days. He was stricken with apoplexy early Sunday morning, and was unconscious for some time before his death.

He is survived by five sisters and three brothers Mrs. James Vrchota, Mrs. Gust Fischer, Mrs. Henry Grabhorn, Mrs. Fred Fischer, of La Crosse, and Mrs. Will Nedvidek, Portland, Ore., and Fred Ernest and Frank Rogie, of La Crosse.

MAINE ELECTION RESULT IN DOUBT

Both Sides Claim Victory; Official Recount of Ballots Necessary to Decide Who Won

PORTLAND, Maine, Sept. 14.—"It's the old army game, boys; which shell is the vote under?"

And that's just about the way every voter in the state of Maine feels about the election that, some put it today "is still going on" to decide whether the keystone commonwealth in the proposed arch of prohibition to spread over the country is to remain the keystone.

Up to 10 o'clock today it was a case of "katy did" and "katy didn't." The last time the votes were counted somebody said there was a majority of 44 for the dries. This was telegraphed throughout the state. By the time the messages reached their destinations, other figures were started out over the same wires giving the wets a victory of 500.

Secretary of State Davis today announced that no figures could be considered official until Governor Plaisted arrives about noon and starts an official count of every ballot cast.

SLAYER OUT ON BAIL

HURRIES TO BEDSIDE OF DYING WIFE; SHOT MAN ACCUSED OF RUINING HOME

FULTON, Mo., Sept. 14.—Richard Johnson, 69, who yesterday shot and killed John Griggs, 45, the man alleged to have ruined his home, was released today in $2,500 bail although charged with murder in the first degree.

He immediately left for Boydsville to be at the bedside of his dying wife. Physicians say that she cannot survive many hours. Johnson's first words today were about the condition of his wife.

It is not believed that Johnson intended to kill Griggs when he appeared at the Johnson home yesterday. Mary, 15, and Ethel, 11, Johnson's daughters, testified last night at the coroner's inquest, held under a tree in a pasture adjoining the Johnson home. They said they saw Griggs coming into the house and told their father, who was fanning his wife as she lay in bed. He arose, they said, reached for a shotgun on a rack in the room and went to meet Griggs. They did not follow him. Johnson's youngest daughter, aged 7, witnessed the slaying but was unable to give a detailed account of the shooting.

The Johnsons moved here about five years ago. Mrs. Johnson who is now only 40 years old, is handsome. Some time ago Griggs, who has a wife and family, was warned to keep away from the Johnson home. Mrs. Johnson, in her confession, is said to have alleged that Griggs threatened to kill her if she caused him trouble. The authorities are withholding the entire confession, covering specific occurrences.

CHARGED WITH FIGHTING

A fight said to have been started by Bill Young in Ed Crowley's saloon on North Third street yesterday, resulted in Young's arrest by the police. Young is now being held at central police station.

FAIR BOARD ASKS MORE BUILDINGS

$100,000 Concrete and Steel Grand Stand Urged; Solons See Aeroplane Flights

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 14.—A new concrete and steel grandstand, to cost approximately $100,000, a large main exposition building to house fine arts and mercantile exhibits for which accommodations are inadequate at the present time, another cattle barn, a hog barn, a poultry building and an addition to the educational building are being urged by the members of the Wisconsin state board of agriculture, and the necessity of an early start on the structures wanted is called attention to in a formal communication from the board to the members of the Wisconsin legislature.

It is pointed out that with the accommodations at the fair grounds enlarged and improved the exposition would greatly increase in scope, quantity and quality.

The solons of Wisconsin, in making their annual visit to the fair, found a change from former years in the destruction of the old judges' stand directly in front of the grandstand.

The old site is still fenced in as before, but a floor has been laid in it and the space is now intended for the use of one of the bands. Yesterday afternoon, however, state senators and assemblymen were corralled as far as possible and were seated there during Beachey's daring flirtations with the spirit of the air.

NOMINATION DAY IN CANADA; FIGHT HOT

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 14.—This is nomination day all over Canada. Voting on the reciprocity issue will take place a week hence. Owing to the reciprocity issue public interest is greater than in any contest for twenty years and the feeling in some districts is very bitter.

A sensation was sprung in Montreal today when Editor L. Berthiaume declared he was offered $250,000 if his paper, Le Presse, would fight reciprocity. The Canadian Pacific's influence is being used against the administration. The Canadian Northern and Grand Trunk appear to be helping Laurier. A number of liberals oppose the trade agreement with the United States on the ground that it will divert traffic from east and west to north and south, hurting transportation interests and dealing a blow to Canadian ports.

20,000 ARE DRIVEN OUT BY VOLCANO

CATANIA, Sicily, Sept. 14.—The steadily increasing river of boiling lava flooding the sides of Mount Etna today drove 20,000 persons from their homes in the villages of Castiglione and Franca Villa.

When the inhabitants fled the main stream of lava, nearly half a mile wide and fifty feet deep, had rolled to within two miles of the villages.

The discharge of lava increased steadily today and the molten streams entered the Alcantara valley, destroyed several orchards and filled up the springs which supplied the villages with water.

M'GOVERN SILENT ON LA FOLLETTE

Wisconsin Executive Talks Before House of Governors on Public Utilities

SPRING LAKE, N. J., Sept. 14.—In a speech remarkable for its total absence of reference to La Follette, Governor McGovern of Wisconsin, reviewed the history and discussed the work of the public utilities commission of his state.

After referring to the reasons for its establishment and the court rulings that legalized it, the governor told briefly of the commission's work in fixing rates, valuations and systems of uniform accounting.

"Time was in Wisconsin," he said, "when the railroads ran or tried to run the state government and the minor utilities sought to boss the cities, towns and villages. Now they no longer have anything to gain or lose by intermeddling in politics and apparently have decided to retire for good. What this signifies in the purification of public life, no one here needs to be reminded."

GERMANY IN STRAITS

FINANCIAL SITUATION SAID TO BE DESPERATE ON ACCOUNT OF TROUBLE WITH FRANCE

BERLIN, Sept. 14.—The German foreign office today anxiously awaited the climax of the Franco-German difficulty which will be reached with the arrival of the French Courier who left Paris last night with the Gallie standpoint reply to the German Moroccan proposals. The courier is due here late today. The bourse, nervous for weeks, has settled into a depression that resulted in a general decline of prices.

Reports Are Censored
LONDON, Sept. 14.—No notion of the real seriousness of Germany's financial straits has been given in any of the strictly censored reports hitherto sent out from Berlin, according to confidential advices received by financial houses here today.

These messages say the situation is little short of desperate and a very much longer continuation of the strain in Franco-German relations will inevitably mean such a business shakeup as the Fatherland has never known.

Officials Indifferent
Officialdom seems, however, wholly indifferent to the requirements of the business interests. Its latest act was to warn the government telegraph department to be ready at a moment's notice to facilitate the transmission of mobilization orders.

DOGSKIN JOHNSON CONFESSES CRIME

Imbecile Neighbor Says He Murdered Little Annie Lemberger While He Was Drunk

FEARS VIOLENCE OF A MOB

Now in State Prison at Waupun Sentenced for Life; Barely Escapes Lynching

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 14.—His confession late yesterday clearing the kidnapping and murder mystery surrounding the death of little seven-year-old Annie Lemberger, John A. Johnson, an imbecile neighbor of the Lemberger family, today started serving a life sentence in the state penitentiary.

Johnson confessed at 5:30 p. m. yesterday. Within thirty minutes he had waived a preliminary hearing, was sentenced to life imprisonment by Judge Anthony Donovan and was speeding under heavy guard toward the state penitentiary at Waupun, 80 miles distant.

Taken back to prison after being formally charged with the crime, Johnson's disordered mind gave way. He begged prison officials to save him from an imaginary mob howling for his life's blood outside the prison. He then begged to confess.

Dreads Mob's Vengeance
"I want lawyers," he said, "then I want to confess to a judge and get away before that mob gets me." He interjected his story with parts of the crime he could not remember. He says he was intoxicated and could not recall.

The child's body was found floating in Lake Monona four days after she mysteriously disappeared from her bed in the dead of night.

There was evidence of criminal assault and brutal murder. The populace, roused to a frenzy by the terrible crime, would have needed but a leader to have strung up the prisoner had his confession become generally known, before the speedy action allowed by Wisconsin's laws in such cases.

Johnson is an ex-convict and had been incarcerated in an insane asylum following a similar crime in 1905.

Murderer's Story

Chief Shaughnessy and District Attorney Nelson made every effort to induce Johnson to make a full confession of the details of the kidnapping and murder, but they failed. Johnson would reply to most questions that he didn't remember, or that he would make a full confession after he reached the state prison. He said he was afraid of being lynched and wanted to get out of Madison as soon as possible. He said he had no motive in committing the crime.

Johnson told the officers that he had often stood outside the Lemberger home, which was only four doors from his own home, and watched the Lemberger children go to bed. He had frequently spoken to little Annie Lemberger, the murdered child, and had given her candy and sweetmeats.

Devilish Impulse

On the night of the kidnapping and murder Johnson said that he went to bed drunk, having spent the day drinking whisky and beer in large quantities. He could not sleep, he said, and finally got up and put on his clothes. He went out to see if he could find a saloon open to get more to drink, but while passing the Lemberger house he thought of having seen Annie Lemberger sleeping near a window, and some devilish impulse urged him to steal her.

He stepped over to the window, quietly unfastened and raised it, and then lifted the child from her couch without putting his foot inside the room. He said that when he lifted her out she stirred uneasily and was awakening. To prevent her from making an outcry and arousing the other members of the family he struck her on the head with his clenched fist. Then he hit her again and again, until she became limp in his arms.

Sought to Hide Crime
Then he took her across Frances street, which runs in front of the Lemberger home, and laid her down in a vacant lot, which was filled with high weeds.

Johnson said that after he laid the child down in the weeds he began to realize the awfulness of his crime and he began to think of the best way to get out of the affair without being discovered. He said that the child did not show any signs of life and he thought she was dead. He lifted her up and ran with her toward Lake Monona bay, six blocks away. He said that he avoided the streets and cut across lots and kept in the shadow of billboards, fences, outbuildings and other structures.

Crept Home in Fear

Finally he reached the shore of the bay and hurled the body out into the water. Then he crept home by the same dark paths and quietly went to bed.

Johnson said that the little girl had a small, ragged night gown on when he lifted her through the weeds.

PROMOTERS CALL OFF BIG CONTEST

Conference of Four Hours Yesterday Results in Decision to Postpone the Bout

CHAMPION BREAKS HIS CAMP

Wolgast Goes to Home in Cadillac, Mich; May Be Held in Some Coast City

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 14.—The jig is up. Realizing this hundreds of disappointed fight fans today were paid back amounts ranging from $10 to $3 they paid to see Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion of the world, and Packey McFarland in a ten round bout here tomorrow night.

The fight was declared off by promoters following a conference for four hours with District Attorney Zabel, Acting Governor Thomas Morris, Sheriff Arnold and others. The bout will take place either on the Pacific coast or New York in the near future, it is announced.

Despite an opinion of Attorney General Bancroft that the proposed match would not be a prize fight, according to articles of agreement, the district attorney and sheriff were firm in their stand to stop its being held. Realizing the county officials were backed by Acting Governor Morris, the promoters decided to call off the bout rather than attempt to stage it in the face of the law.

Returning Money

Forty thousand dollars already in hand for advance sale of seats is being returned today.

In conjunction with stopping the Wolgast-McFarland match District Attorney Zabel has announced the sport will not be allowed in Milwaukee henceforth.

The following statement was today made public by Frank Mulken for the National A. C., under whose auspices the match was to be held:

"After a conference with Lieutenant Governor Morris, Sheriff Arnold, District Attorney Zabel and the members of the National A. C. and their attorneys, at which conference the lieutenant governor refused to recede from his position instructing the sheriff to stop the fight, and District Attorney Zabel advising the sheriff not to heed any injunction that might be obtained, the promoters on advice of their attorneys wishing to create no disturbance or in any manner violate the law, decided to call off the bout.

"The promoters think that they are the victims of political prejudice."

Expressing his disappointment at the turn of affairs Tom Jones, manager of Wolgast, today gave orders to break camp at the Wolgast headquarters on the Janesville plank road. The champion will leave here today for his home in Cadillac, Mich.

May Stop Big Fight

LONDON, Sept. 14.—London county council which is practically supreme in its control of the metropolitan arena here, is deluged with protests from all parts of England against the authorization of the Johnson-Wells fight set for the end of this month. Though the council shows no signs of compliance with these demands, the directors of the Auditorium at Earl's court where the contest is scheduled to be held, are so much impressed that they have called a meeting to consider revocation of their contract with the fight promoters. The latter say the fight will take place despite all opposition.

Trouble in East

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—It looked today as though Governor Dix be lined up as the official goat in the tangled affairs of the state boxing commission. The abbreviated board is still hopelessly divided against itself over the lease of the Madison Square club and the question of revoking the Garden license will probably be put up to the governor.

TAFT WRITES WILEY ANSWER

BEVERLY, Mass., Sept. 14.—President Taft began work at six o'clock today with a stenographer and it is understood he is writing the decision in the case of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, the government's food expert whose dismissal from the service was recommended by the personal board of the department of agriculture on the charge of technical violation of the law covering expenditures.

The opinion prevails that Dr. Wiley will be retained at his post.

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

A high court has just let Frank J. Gould off with a $1,000 fine for his part in the notorious steel wire
pools through which, in violation of penal law, the people of this country have been swindled out of millions. S. A. Potter is under arrest in Chicago for mulcting the public out of a million by gold brick schemes. Potter will no doubt get a stiff prison sentence. What is the difference between these two criminals that is presumed to justify this difference in treatment accorded by
the courts?

PERSONAL POWER

In an invigorating series of talks
to college men, issued under the title "Personal Power," ex-President Tucker, of Dartmouth College, whose career has been a striking illustration of the inspiring influence which flows from a strong, well-poised,
and convincing personality, gives
this suggestive counsel: "Never rest
content with the forgiveness of God
when your 'sins are covered,' but
go on to the recovery of personal power. Forgiveness is a means to an end, namely, the reinstatement of your life and its uses. If you have wasted time, redeem it. If your life
has gone out in mere negation, let
it close in some clear affirmation of truth. If you have compromised with evil, and men have known your habits, be not afraid or ashamed of the inconsistency of standing forth for righteousness."—The Outlook.

FREE BRIDGE IN SIGHT

An understanding having been arrived at upon broad lines, the free
bridge and causeway incident seems
in a way to be closed shortly in a manner satisfactory to all concerned.This is mighty pleasant news. The establishment of full accord between
Mr. Bryant (representing the good roads sentiment) and the free bridge
enthusiasts, may be taken as a guarantee that sufficient money will be raised to make the road a model ofperfection to which no man would hesitate to attach his name and reputation. The vote by which the council declined to table the free
bridge ordinance indicates an awakened sentiment for the forward step,
and the majority will doubtless be
increased now that there is no dis-ension among the citizens. We look
to see this ordinance made a law,
as a mere matter of routine, at the next meeting of the council.

START A "MAN HUNT"

The police are making an effort
to apprehend the assailant of little Frances Smith, and the parents of La Crosse are praying for their success.Than this crime against childhood
there is none worse among the afflictions of society. With a lecherous pervet at large, the children are in constant peril. The little daily pilgrimage to school becomes a journey fraught with terrors to the child, and it is no imaginary peril.Had some thief stolen $1,000 the entire police force would be on the scent, every avenue of escape watched, every clue run down by the ablest men at Chief Webber's command.Let the hunt for the miscreant in this horrible affair be more assiduous
than any search for yegg or thief.
The crime is immensely worse, the existence of the criminal is a menace
to our children.Three times in as many months
have these dastardly affairs occurred. No one has been caught, no one has suffered a penalty.We wonder if the full meaning of
this crime is appreciated by the authorities. We wonder if they realize that murder is a mere misdemeanor
in foulness compared with this monstrous thing.The Tribune hopes, demands, that
the search for this unspeakable creature be prosecuted with all the power and intelligence of the police department, and that, when caught, the practice of fining men of perverted
behavior next to nothing and cost be discarded forever. This is no police court affair, and THE PEOPLE OF
LA CROSSE INSIST THAT THE PENALTY SHALL BE THE UT-
MOST THE LAW PROVIDES.Madison's tragedy is before us.
There 7-year-old Annie Lemberger is dead, despoiled and murdered by just
such a wanton as he whom the La Crosse police seek. Shall we content
ourselves to wait until some father
and mother in this community are bereft? Shall we bide until the sacrifice is made?The Tribune believes the circumstances fully justify Mayor Dengler in offering
a reward for the arrest of
the bestial assailant of Frances Smith.

AN EARLY FROST COMING

Without doubt Mr. Esch will not be disappointed as to his conclusion
that when President Taft arrives in this state he will find the people in full sympathy with those congress-
men who voted against the administration's so-called Canadian reciprocity bill. As our member says, Wisconsin and Minnesota will not be wanting in courtesy to the chief executive of this nation, but they will yield nothing of their difference of opinion with him, and the reserve
they feel will be so unmistakable as not to escape the president. The courtesy extended to Mr. Taft will be impersonal, and will be inspired by reverence for the country and its institutions. The perfunctory character of such demonstrations as occur will be an eloquent forecast of
what may be expected here, and
throughout the northwest, in the campaign of 1912.

New Drug That Quickly Removes

freckles, as a new drug, othine-
double strength has been discovered that is a positive cure for these homely spots.Simply get one ounce of othine-
double strength, from O. T. Erhart
and apply a little of it at night, and
in the morning you will see that even the worst have begun to disappear, while the light freckles have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.Be sure to ask for the double strength othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.How to Remove A Bad Complexion

(From London Fashions.)

Cosmetics can never really help a poor complexion; often they are positively harmful. The sensible, rational way is to actually remove the thin
veil of stifling, half dead scarf skin
from the face and give the fresh, vigorous and beautiful young skin underneath a chance to show itself and to breathe.This is best done in a very simple
way, by merely applying merozilized
wax at night, like cold cream, and washing it off in the morning. Good merozilized wax can be obtained from any well stocked druggist. It absorbs
the disfiguring cuticle gradually and
harmlessly, leaving a brilliant natural complexion. Of course this also takes with it all such facial blemishes
as red blotches, tan, moth patches,
sallowness, liver spots, pimples, etc.
As a freckle remover and general
complexion beautifier this old fashioned remedy is unequalled.Quips and Cranks

Not an Expert

Joseph E. Widener, the Philadelphia capitalist, horseman and con-noisseur, was discussing the enormous prices realized at the sale of the Hoe library in New York."Some of those prices indicated
ignorance, rank ignorance," said
Mr. Widener, "and millionaires who paid them were as bad as Jacob Cash.""Jacob Cash, of Chicago, after acquiring a large fortune, decided to set up a library. Accordingly he sent for a bookseller and ordered 10,000
volumes, all to be as fine and hand-
some as possible.""Very good, sir," said the bookseller, "I'll give you nothing but standard books. I suggest that half of them be bound in russet and half
in morocco.""No, no," said Jacob Cash. "I'm an out-and-out protectionist. I am.
Let 'em all be bound in America."

Her Method

"Fraulein Hube is going to be married pretty soon, isn't she?""Yes. She takes him past the registry office every day to get him
used to it."—Fliegende Blaetter.

Their Probable Location

"The late Dr. George M. Bailey
of New York," said a Presbyterian preacher, "was thoroughly modern
in his methods, but he did think that some of our surgeons went too far.""Dr. Bailey, apropos of certain reckless abuses of the knife, used to tell a story of an appendicitis club.""At a meeting of this club a pallid member said:"Well, friends, I had to be re-operated last week. My doctor left a sponge inside me.""I was reopened, too," said a gaunt man. "I was reopened just ten days ago. Prof. Cutler had forgotten to remove a pair of forceps.""At this a nervous looking chap
groaned, jumped up and made for
the door.""What's the matter?" they asked
him. "Where are you off to in such a rush?""I'm off to my doctor's," the man replied. "I remember now that
just after I came to he complained
about mislaying his hat and stick."

Punishment

"Has Tommie been a good boy
since I've been out?" said the mother."No, he hasn't," replied the father.
"Did you punish him?""No."
"Oh, yes, you did, pop! Don't you remember you sang to me?" came from the boy.—Yonkers Statesman.

The Futility of Cynicism

"The cynic," said Dr. J. H. Jowett,
as he paced the deck of the Adriatic,
"seems to me as foolish and wrong-
headed as the school boy who refused to play during the recess hour.""As this boy sat, with a discontented look, on a hard, stiff bench, a
comrade said:

"Why aren't you playing, Jack?"

"Jack frowned contemptuously.
"Catch me playing!" he said. "If I played, then the recess hour would go by too fast."—New York Tribune.

They Were Not Helped

The Rev. Dr. Aked, at a farewell
dinner in New York, said of an overzealous missionary:"Neither with the heathen nor
with our own people does it do to advocate religion on mercenary grounds.""I know a manufacturer who, last Easter, told all his hands that he would pay them if they went to church. Accordingly the hands all went, and a fine, brave show they made. The manufacturer, scanning
their ranks from his pew, swelled
with joy and pride.""But after the service a foreman
approached and said:"Boss, the fellows want me to ask you if we come to church again
tonight, do we get overtime?"

An American Novel

THE MISSISSIPPI DOUBBLE, ETC.

"Then why should not I end our matter there, Sir? It seems to me
that if in any usual way of life, going about her business honestly,
paying her obligations of all sort—
even that to her crucifix at night—
a woman who is clean wishes to remain clean, to be herself—why, I
say, if that may not be, among men
great or small, distinguished or unknown, then most fortunate is she
who remains aloof from all chance of that sort of thing. Sir, I should not like to think that, while I am
in my room, for the time removed
from the society of the gentlemen
who should be my protectors, there
was going on, let us say, somewhere
in the gentlemen's saloon, a little enterprise at chance in which—"

"But, my dear lady, you are mad
to speak in this way! Lightning,
even lightning of folly, does not
strike twice in the same place."
"Ah, does it not? But it has!"

"What can you mean? Surely you do not mean actually to say that you yourself ever have figured in such
an incident?"

She made no answer to him, save
to look straight into his eyes, chin
in hand still, her long white arm
lying out, motionless, her posture
free of nervous strain or unrest.

Slowly her lips parted, showing her fine white teeth in a half smile. Her eyes smiled also, with wisdom in their look.

The venerable statesman opposed
to her all at once felt his resources going. He knew that his quest was over, that this young woman was
after all able to fend for herself.

"What would you do?" she demanded of him. "If you were a woman and knew you were merely
coveted in general, as a woman,
and that you had been just cheaply
played for in a game of cards, in a public place—what would you do, if you could, to the man who lost—or
the man who won? Would you be delivered over? That woman, was she—but she could not help herself; she had no place to turn, poor girl! And she said all her life, then,
for some art earlier, which left her fair game. Was that it?"

"But you, my dear girl! It is impossible!"

"I was more fortunate, that is
all. Would you blame me if I dreaded the memory of such an incident; if I felt a certain shrinking
from one who ever figured in such an incident? If I could trust—but then, but then—Are you very sure that Mr. Parish loved that woman?"

"I am sure of it," answered the old man soberly.

"Did he use her well?"

"All her life. He gave her everything—"

"Oh, that is nothing! Did he give her—after he had learned, maybe,
that she was not what he had
thought—did he give her then—
love—belief, trust? Did he—are you
very sure that any man in such case,
after such an incident, could have
loved, really loved, the woman
whom he held in that way—"

"I not only believe he might, my
dear girl, but I know that in this
one case—the only one of my experience"—he smiled—"such was the truth. There was some untold reason why they two did not, or could not, marry. I do not go into that."

"Consider, my dear girl," he resumed, "you are young, and I am
so old that it is as though I too
were young now and had no experience—so we may talk. Our life is a contest among men for money and
for love; that is all success can bring us. In older days men fought for that. Today we have modified
life a little, and have other ways;
but I fancy the game in which that certain lady figured was only one
form of contest—it was a fight, the spoils to go to the victor."

"Horrible! But you might have been the victor! In that case, would you have loved her, would you have used her well, all your life, and hers?"

He drew back now with dignity.

SUFFRAGETTES WIN
A SIGNAL VICTORY

SPRING LAKE, N. J., Sept. 14.—
One of the most signal victories
American suffragists have yet scored
was recorded when the house of governors granted Dr. Anna Shaw
permission to address the assemblage for thirty minutes today. The victory was due in a large measure
to the efforts of the governors of the five equal franchise states, who are all ardent sympathizers with
the cause.

The suffragettes, wearing buttons
and badges reading "Votes for women," flocked about the five governors of states where women are allowed the ballot—Hay of Washington; Carey of Wyoming; Hawley of Idaho; Shafroth of Colorado; and Spry of Utah. Mrs. Arthur D. Townsend of New York, treasurer of the Women's Political Union, urged all
the governors to attend a big suf-
fragist meeting at Cooper Union,
New York, Saturday night and several agreed.

Mrs. A. Van Winkle, of Newark,
president of the New Jersey Suffragist League, took the occasion to put the matter up to Governor
Woodrow Wilson by saying:

"It is time for the chief executive
of New Jersey to put himself on one side or the other of this great question."

All the governors seemed to enjoy the occasion.

HEYBURN TO BACK
REPUBLICAN NOMINEE

WALLACE, Idaho, Sept. 14.—
"Yes, I have been quoted correctly.
I shall be back of the republican nominee for president for 1912 wherever he is a standpatter or an insurgent," said United States Senator Heyburn today.

Heyburn will attend a meeting of the republican state central committee at Boise, Sept. 20, and "dispel any doubt in the minds of the committee as to the future of the republican party."

Heyburn does not believe that the activities of the progressives will cause a split in the party when the presidential campaign begins.

GOVERNOR WIELDS CANE

CLEVELAND, Sept. 14.—When a
colored bellboy jumped into Governor Bleas of South Carolina here
and yelled "gang way," the governor's ire was aroused and he took a pass at the boy with his cane.

How to Make a Real
Wrinkle Remover

(From Fashion Reporter.)
In these days of cleverly advertised "beautifiers" of 57 varieties and more, it is hard for any woman to believe that she can make a simple
home remedy which will do her much
more good, and cost her much less than the average made preparation.

Take the subject of wrinkles, for instance. There is nothing in the world so effective for removing or preventing wrinkles, baggy cheeks
and double chins, as a solution of saxolite and witch hazel.

Get an ounce of pure powdered
saxolite from any drug store, dissolve the full ounce in a half pint of witch hazel and use the mixture daily
as a refreshing lotion. The quick and satisfactory results will surprise you.
Even after the very first application
there is a marked improvement. The wrinkles are less in evidence and the face has a firm, "solid" feeling that is very comforting.

CHANLER WOULD "RESIGN"

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Although
his friends say he is still madly in love with the fair Lina Cavalleri, it is said Bob Chanler is willing to pay
her $70,000 if she will permit him
to resign as her husband. His law-
years are now in France seeking to buy Cavalleri's claim to a share in the Chanler millions, as provided in the famous pre-nuptial agreement.
Meantime Sheriff Bob is in seclusion on his farm at Reed Hook,
heartbroken, his friends say, over the wreck of his romance.

TROOPS CRUSH REBELLION

BADAJOS, Spain, Sept. 13.—Republican troops have crushed a despicable royalist attempt to restore
the Portuguese monarchy at Amara-
nte, according to information arriving here from across the frontier
today.

Owing to the censorship it is not clear whether the country was invaded by royalists from Spain or if the rising was purely local. The battle lasted more than an hour
and many were killed on both sides.</

HERE IS A REAL DYSPEPSIA CURE

Pape's Diapepsin settles upset Stomachs and ends Indigestion in five minutes

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from Indigestion, Dyspepsia or out-of-order Stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Diapepsin.

If your Stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak Stomachs should take a little Diapepsin occasionally, and there will be no more Indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, Sour risings, Gas on Stomach or Belching of undigested food, Headaches, Dizziness or Sick Stomach, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved in five minutes after taking a little Diapepsin.

Go to your druggist and get a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin, now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

DISEASE HANGS OVER THE CITY

North Side Threatened by Typhoid as Result of Poor Sewer Facilities

PROGRESSIVE LEAGUE MEETS

Various Civic Questions Discussed at Big Meeting Held Last Night

Declaring that the north side stands in danger of an epidemic of typhoid fever Alderman George B. Marvin of the Ninth ward sounded a note of alarm at the meeting of the North Side Progressive league last night while discussing the condition of the sewers which empty into Black River near Copeland park.

Alderman Marvin declared that garbage and sewage runs into the river and gathers in the stagnant water in front of the boat houses an odor that makes it almost impossible to breathe in the boat houses along the park front.

Alderman Mahoney declared that the remedy for the evil was to extend the sewer at Clinton street out into the middle of the river where the water is deeper and there is some current. He stated that the sewer at the present time is out of water completely, and that the sewage drop into the shallow, stagnant water near the shore. Action is already under way, Mr. Mahoney added, to extend the sewer.

Hammond Chute Up

The Hammond Chute question was discussed, and a resolution was passed to take the matter up with the proper government officials to have the chute closed, and the water running through turned into the channel of the Black river. The secretary of the league was instructed to find out from Captain W. A. Thompson the name of the proper official.

The question of the proposed paving of a road to the Rubber Mills was brought up by Alderman Mahoney, who declared that the north side was unable to get street improvements when they were needed owing to the fact that there were no north side aldermen on the special street improvement committee of the council. He also declared that the committee refused to give him a hearing on the question before they laid the resolution for the proposed paving on the table. It was suggested by Alderman Marvin, that the six north side aldermen get together before the next meeting of the council, and decide what policy to pursue to obtain the needed paving. It was also suggested that the aldermen hold a meeting before every meeting of the council at which matters of vital importance to the north side were to be discussed, to decide on a policy to which all would conform.

Viaduct Discussed

The matter of the proposed Rose street viaduct was also raised, but was disposed of by Mr. Mahoney, who stated that the matter was up to the railroad commission, and nothing could be done pending their action.

Father Ambrose Murphy was elected chairman pro tem of the meeting in the absence of both the president and vice president.

TRAIN THIEVES ON O. B. & Q. TRAINS

The local police department was notified today by Chief Clerk C. J. Sleer of the Burlington to be on the lookout for stolen property which was taken from passengers on a Burlington sleeping car train Tuesday evening. The police in all other towns on the La Crosse division of the "Q" have also been notified of the theft.

A party of people enroute to New York from Minneapolis discovered the theft of clothes and valuables from their luggage and reported the affair at Chicago. The amount of the theft is not given, but the police have been supplied with a description of the articles.

Mr. Sleer this morning declared that he had no clue to the thief, or to the place where the theft took place, but that every effort would be made to round up the stolen goods.

The Beer of Comparison

And that is the highest praise that can be bestowed on any beer. It is nature's own invigorator. A bottle calms the overwrought nerves, rejuvenates the tired body, makes life's prospects rosy again. But be sure it's

BRITISH REFUGEES ESCAPE CHINESE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Information received at the state and navy department from China indicated that a number of refugees from the province of Sze Chuen had arrived at Nanking and were being offered every protection there.

All of these refugees were British subjects. They did not know what had happened to Americans in the same territory.

All wires into Chengtu have been cut and the Chinese government is unable to give the American diplomatic officers any definite information from the zone of yesterday's battle.

The Chinese government, however, renews its assurance that the imperial army will be used to the last man if necessary to put down the rebellion and restore order.

KNOX WANTS MORE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Secretary Knox will ask congress this winter to increase the appropriation for consular assistants, making it possible for the state department to employ Americans at all consular posts. At present the amount of money allowed for clerk hire is only $1,000 a year at consular offices. This is not enough to encourage young American men to do that work, therefore foreigners have been employed in many cases. Congress has opposed the idea of foreigners in the consular service but will have to provide the money if the present practice is discontinued.

ANNIVERSARY OF IMPORTANT BATTLE

JIM CORBETT

Nineteen years ago there occurred in New Orleans one of the most famous pugilistic battles of ring history. This fight was one of three held on the successive days of September 6th, 7th and 8th, 1892 and one of the most memorable fight carnivals ever held. On the 7th the heavyweight championship of the world was determined when J. J. Corbett knocked out John L. Sullivan in 21 rounds. The pictures show Corbett and Sullivan as they appeared then and in the center a snap shot of the two men taken recently together showing them as they appear today.

SHOOTSMAN WHO IS ALLEGED TO HAVE WRECKED HOME LIFE

R.B. WATSON

MRS. HARRIET B. CONEY

CHICAGO.—Refusing to swallow the bitter pill of being cast aside by the man she says wrecked her home, Mrs. H. B. Coney, the divorced wife of George A. Coney, shot Robert Bruce Watson, a wealthy Chicago architect, director of the Chicago Athletic Association, well known contractor and clubman, wounding him twice. The shooting occurred in front of the Watson residence, 225 South Central Park avenue, where the architect lives with his mother and sister, Mrs. Darling, shortly after Watson had slammed the door in Mrs. Coney's face. One of the bullets struck him above the right ear and the other lodged in the thigh. Following the shooting the woman calmly justified her act by telling a policeman that "he ought to be her husband."

HENEY DENOUNCES JUDICIAL KINGDOM

Famous San Francisco
Graft Prosecutor Analyzes Seattle Fight Against Interests

ARGUMENT FOR THE RECALL

Says Men Arrested Were
Only Exercising Their Right of American
Citizenship

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 14.—Denouncing the action of Federal Judge Hanford of Seattle for arresting editors of the Seattle Star and others who protested against one of his rulings, Francis J. Heney, San Francisco graft prosecutor, today issued the following statement:

"The recent trouble between the people of Seattle and Federal Judge Hanford is a powerful argument in favor of the recall of the judiciary. The Seattle case is fatal. It strikes not only at our boasted free speech but the freedom of the press as well. Here we have a judge against whom the people protested. He had repeatedly given remarkable decisions in favor of corporations, especially when he granted an injunction to a street car company restraining the people from even asking for transfers, although the state supreme court had decided they were entitled to transfers. The people arose and denounced him in a gigantic mass meeting.

"It must be remembered that only a short time before this same judge had enjoined the same people from exercising their right of American citizenship to recall their mayor who was notoriously in alliance with the tenderloin and gambling element.

Injunction Set Aside

"This ridiculous injunction was promptly set aside by the United States court of appeals. The Seattle Star had fought for this recall and had also fought the battle against the street railway corporation. After the mass meeting two editors of the Star and six speakers were arrested on a charge of "conspiracy to obstruct justice." Their only crime, if there was any crime, was to protest against what they considered an unjust ruling by a court. They had simply exercised the right of every man, woman and child in this country.

"If these men are convicted it means that a precedent will have been established which would permit judges under fire to arrest and punish with jail sentences everyone who dares to criticize them. It will be the first step towards the establishment of a judicial kingdom and the placing of judges on a throne where they can look down upon the people and jail them for just criticism.

Impeachment Impossible

"There is still another phase to this case which is even more dangerous. If this precedent is established it may permit judges under fire to view impeachment proceedings as an attempt to obstruct justice and to imprison the leaders of such a movement.

"The Seattle case is one which will be of immeasurable importance not only to every newspaper but to every man or woman who doesn't wish to be ruled by the judiciary without a chance of appeal from their decisions."

LA FOLLETTE FORCES GATHER AT BANQUET

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 14.—The La Follette forces tonight are to fire another broadside in their campaign to take Nebraska out of the Taft column. The leaders of the movement, who recently organized the Nebraska Progressive Republican league, will gather for a banquet at the Lindell hotel.

Senator La Follette has sent word that he cannot be present, but in his stead will appear Senator Clapp of Minnesota, who is to deliver the keynote speech and urge the republicans of Nebraska to throw their votes to the Wisconsin senator in the coming presidential primary in this state.

The banquet committee is preparing to entertain 400 guests.

MOURNED AS DEAD FOUND IN UTAH

BILLINGS, Mont., Sept. 14.—Absent from Billings for more than seven years and mourned as dead by family and friends, Thomas M. Williams, former clerk of the court of Yellowstone county, has been found in Salt Lake City, Utah, following a search by representatives of the Woodmen of the World, caused by an action brought by his wife, who resides in Duluth, Minn., to recover $3,000 insurance on ground that he had not been heard from for more than seven years and must be dead.

Williams admitted his identity. He had made a tour of the world and been engaged in various occupations, but would give no reason for having left Billings.

SHAKERS CALM IN FACE OF CHARGES

"Before God, We Did what Was Right," Say Slay-ers of the Dying Woman

UPHELD BY THE NEIGHBORS

Friends Confident Aged Couple Will Never Be Brought to Account

KISSIMMEE, Fla., Sept. 14.—Quietly going about their humble duties in the little Shaker settlement at Ashton, Sister Elizabeth and Brother Gillette today seemed all unmindful of the grim charges of murder hanging over them.

Not a sign of regret for their gruesome relief of the dying sister whose agonies they soothed with chloroform which also smoothed her way to death appeared in the peaceful, calm, resigned figures who today worked about the little truck farm of the Shaker settlement. The peaceful, deeply furrowed countenance of Sister Elizabeth expressed no anxiety as to the outcome of her trouble. And she quietly echoed the confident faith of her fifty-four-year-old companion:

"Body is Exhumed
"Before God, we did what was right."

The exhumation of the body of the dead sister, Sadie, proved the story of her death as told in the confession of the couple who in answer to her agonized pleading, aided her to "pass from the body." It also disproved an ugly tale that had been circulated as to the cause of the woman's death. Today the surgeons began an analysis to determine whether the internal organs showed traces of any poison other than chloroform.

To the aged couple in their hour of trial, the faithful affection of the little Shaker colony has gone out regardless of the condemnation of the law. The friends of the Shakers in the neighborhood, confidently predict that the aged couple will never be brought to account on the charge of murder.

The inquest on the body of Sister Sadie will be held in about ten days. The grand jury which will consider the case does not meet until November, and until that time the two aged Shakers accused of murder will go quietly and calmly about their duties at the settlement, under insignificant bail bonds.

Governors Give Views
SPRING LAKE, N. J., Sept. 14.—When questioned today regarding their views in the case of two of the Florida Shakers charged with the murder of one of their community, whom they "put out of pain" with the aid of chloroform, the delegates to the fourth annual conference of governors made the following statements:

(By Governor Gilchrist, Florida)
"From the fact that the Shakers were held in such small bail when a person accused of murder in the first degree cannot be bailed at all, I am sure that the circumstances of the case are so well known that those poor people will not be convicted. Certainly not of murder. I doubt whether they will even be indicted."

"Certainly they thought they were doing right and with no possibility of malice being shown. It is morally certain that I shall not be called upon to act as final judge. But if I should be, I cannot conceive of seeing such people hanged."

(By Governor Hadley, Missouri)
"It is against the laws of God and man to take human life, and if you once open the doors to such practices, then there is no telling where it might lead us. Half our murder cases might then be defended on the ground of ending suffering."

(By Governor Hay, Washington)
"It is up to the doctors to decide such a question. I understand many of them are putting their patients out of their suffering when a case is agonizing and hopeless. Maybe they could be held for it, legally, but no case has arisen in my state."

(By Governor Carey, Wyoming)
"I would not permit it in the case of a relative or friend if I could help it," he said. "If such a case were before me for judgment, I should judge it on its merits. It is impossible to make any general rule. In the case of the Shakers I doubt whether they will be convicted."

Governor Tenner, of Pennsylvania, indicated that he would pardon the Shakers. Governor McGovern of Wisconsin said he would use horse sense in such a case. Governor Burke of North Dakota agreed with Governor Hadley that to pardon anybody convicted of such an offense would establish a disastrous precedent. Governor Plaisted of Maine, favored a pardon where the circumstances were such as they appear to be in the case of the Shakers, in the remote possibility of their conviction for murder.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 14.—Annie Hall, sociologist who several years ago created a sensation by advertising the putting to death of persons who had incurable diseases, has sent a message to Judge J. F. Parker before whom Sister Elizabeth Sears and Brother Egbert B. Gillette are arraigned at Kissimmee charged with chloroforming Sister Sadie Marchant of the Shaker colony.

"Act of Egbert B. Gillette should not be regarded as murder, justifiable act, prompted by supreme love and malice."

Miss Hall also sent a message of sympathy to Brother Gillette and Sister Sears.

LA FOLLETTE WILL NOT ATTEND MEET

Wisconsin Senator Will Be Occupied with Work in Washington Until November

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 16.—Senator La Follette is not likely to deliver a political address in Wisconsin for several months and it is certain he will not be able to attend a meeting which the Progressive league here had planned for October, nor the public play conference at Madison, October 25, at which both he and Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey were booked to speak.

This statement was made today by Walter Houser, Washington manager of the progressive republican campaign. Houser has been at his home in Mondovi, Wis., the last week, and is now in Milwaukee conferring with progressive leaders.

The announcement indicates a change in the plans of the Wisconsin progressives, who, since the league was organized, have been counting on a monster state gathering in Milwaukee during October, at which Senator La Follette would be the principal speaker.

It was thought the senator might make formal announcement of his candidacy in a speech at this gathering. According to Houser, the senator will stay in Washington, where he will be occupied until November with the completion of his autobiography and preparations for the progressive campaigns in other states. He will make a tour of the west under the auspices of the progressive republican campaign committee, beginning in November just as other leading progressives are taking the stump.

Should Wisconsin progressives desire to hold a state rally, however, arrangements will be made for some other notable speaker to attend. Either Senator Cummins, of Iowa, or Senator Clapp, Minnesota, may be invited.

INDEPENDENT FIRMS HIT TOBACCO TRUST

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The task of devising a method for dissolving the American Tobacco company under the ruling of the supreme court was taken up again today. Representatives of the tobacco trust met with Judges Lacombe, Ward and Noyes and Attorney General Wickensham to discuss ways and means of carrying out the supreme court order.

Further charges against the trust were set forth in a statement presented to the attorney general by a committee from the Retail Tobacco association, alleging that the trust, since the decision was found, has discriminated against independent manufacturers and dealers in violation of the supreme court decision.

LADIES' COAT CHAINS

From a woman's standpoint chief requisites in a chain are beauty, distinctiveness of design and correctness of style.

Of course, quality is essential, but a chain's mere intrinsic worth counts but little unless it be coupled with grace of design, and unless the style of the chain itself bears the impress of fashion.

Such chains we carry in gold, gold filled and sterling silver qualities.

FINE PROGRAM AT BIG DINNER

Famous Speaker Assures Utermoehl that He Will Be Here Tuesday for Speech

Secretary J. L. Utermoehl of the board of trade this morning received word from A. W. Wyndham, who was a foreman on the Panama canal construction work, and who was to speak at the board of trade dinner which was to have been held this week, that he would be here to deliver an address next Tuesday, Sept. 19, to which date the dinner was postponed.

This is assurance that there will be an excellent program for the dinner which will be held at the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday. Mr. Wyndham is an expert on the subject of the Panama canal, having been on the scene for some time, and his talks in many parts of the country have proven highly satisfactory. He has been in Lancaster, Pa., recently delivering lectures and the local board considers itself fortunate that they secured him, for he has only a few open dates left. His lecture will be illustrated by stereopticon views as has been announced.

Reports are Due

Besides Mr. Wyndham's talk, there are to be important reports read by four or five committees and a brief talk by some Y. M. C. A. official on the work done by the association. Dinner will be served promptly at 6 o'clock so that any who wish to go to the theater that night or have other appointments can leave in time for them without missing any of the program. It is thought by the board that this will be one of the most interesting meetings ever held although some fine sessions have already been held.

SPECIAL PRIZES FOR LOCAL DOGS

In order that La Crosse owners of dogs entered in the Kennel club show, whose dogs are not up to the standard of the kennel bred dogs entered by breeders, may still win prizes on their animals, a number of merchandise prizes have been hung up for which only dogs owned in La Crosse county are eligible. These prizes aggregate a total of about $200 in value, and are in addition to the regular cash premiums which total about $800.

The merchandise prizes which are to be given away are on exhibition in a window of the Park Store this week. Practically every business in La Crosse is represented, and many private persons have contributed toward the prizes for locally owned dogs.

President Case of the Kennel club today announced that entries for the dog show were coming in with great rapidity, and that according to present indications the show would far exceed in the number of dogs on exhibition any previous show. He urges however, that owners intending to enter dogs should do so immediately, as the entries close September 18.

KIDNAPER AT BAY SHOOT PURSUER

Desperado, Who Assaulted School Teacher, Cornered in Underbrush by Grim Posse

HE IS DRIVEN OUT BY HUNGER

Thousand Men Drop Work and Take Up Hunt; Desperate Battle Certain

SNOW FLAKE, Man., Sept. 14.—At bay in the forests along the international border today, Henry Bill Wilson, kidnaper of Eleanor Gladys Brice, shot and seriously wounded one of his pursuers today. Firing repeatedly with an automatic gun Wilson held the rest of the posse cowered into the underbrush and fled.

With dogs trailing him posesses, broken into small detachments are searching for the whole neighborhood and for miles on both sides of the international line, armed men are seeking the desperado. A thousand men have taken up the hunt on the Canadian side while in the United States 500 others have cut off the possibility that Wilson may make his way into North Dakota and escape.

Posse Gives Chase

The man shot today is William Adams, proprietor of the Western hotel at Snow Flake. Wilson had cautiously approached the village, apparently in search of food. Adams saw him and drawing a revolver fired. The outlaw raised his gun and pulled the trigger and Adams fell. The shots attracted the posse just then preparing to leave Snow Flake in search of the girl's kidnaper. They gave chase and Wilson fled back to the edge of the forest. There with shot after shot he held off his pursuers until he reached the underbrush and escaped. The posse fired at him repeatedly but he was apparently not wounded.

Hiding in Forest

The search has centered near the village as it is believed that Wilson may still be hiding at a point near where he was last seen. Other men, however, are scattered through the entire countryside. Grim men with rifles guard the roads and strangers are halted and compelled to give some account of themselves. Another party of searchers came across Wilson at dusk yesterday. They exchanged shots but the outlaw made his escape.

It is believed the bandit will be cornered some time today, and another battle is expected.

Suicide Thwarts Posse

KENTON, Ohio, Sept. 14.—Cornered early today by a posse pursuing him as the murderer of Della Halsey, Jasper Newman, 25, shot and killed himself in a barn on the farm of his father, five miles from Kenton.

The suicide followed the murder of five hours and was the culmination of an unhappy love affair. Both Newman and Miss Halsey were the children of prosperous farmers. Their courtship was often marred by disagreements and Miss Halsey asked Newman to cease her attentions. She came to Kenton but Newman followed her. Last night Newman called the girl from the store where she was employed and shot her.

BRYAN INHARMONIOUS

COMMONER EDITORIAL SAYS WALL STREET PLANS TO SELL HARMONY AT PUBLIC'S EXPENSE

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 14.—William Jennings Bryan will have none of the Wall Street brand of HARMONY. In his Commoner today Mr. Bryan editorially denounced Wall street and its methods, saying:

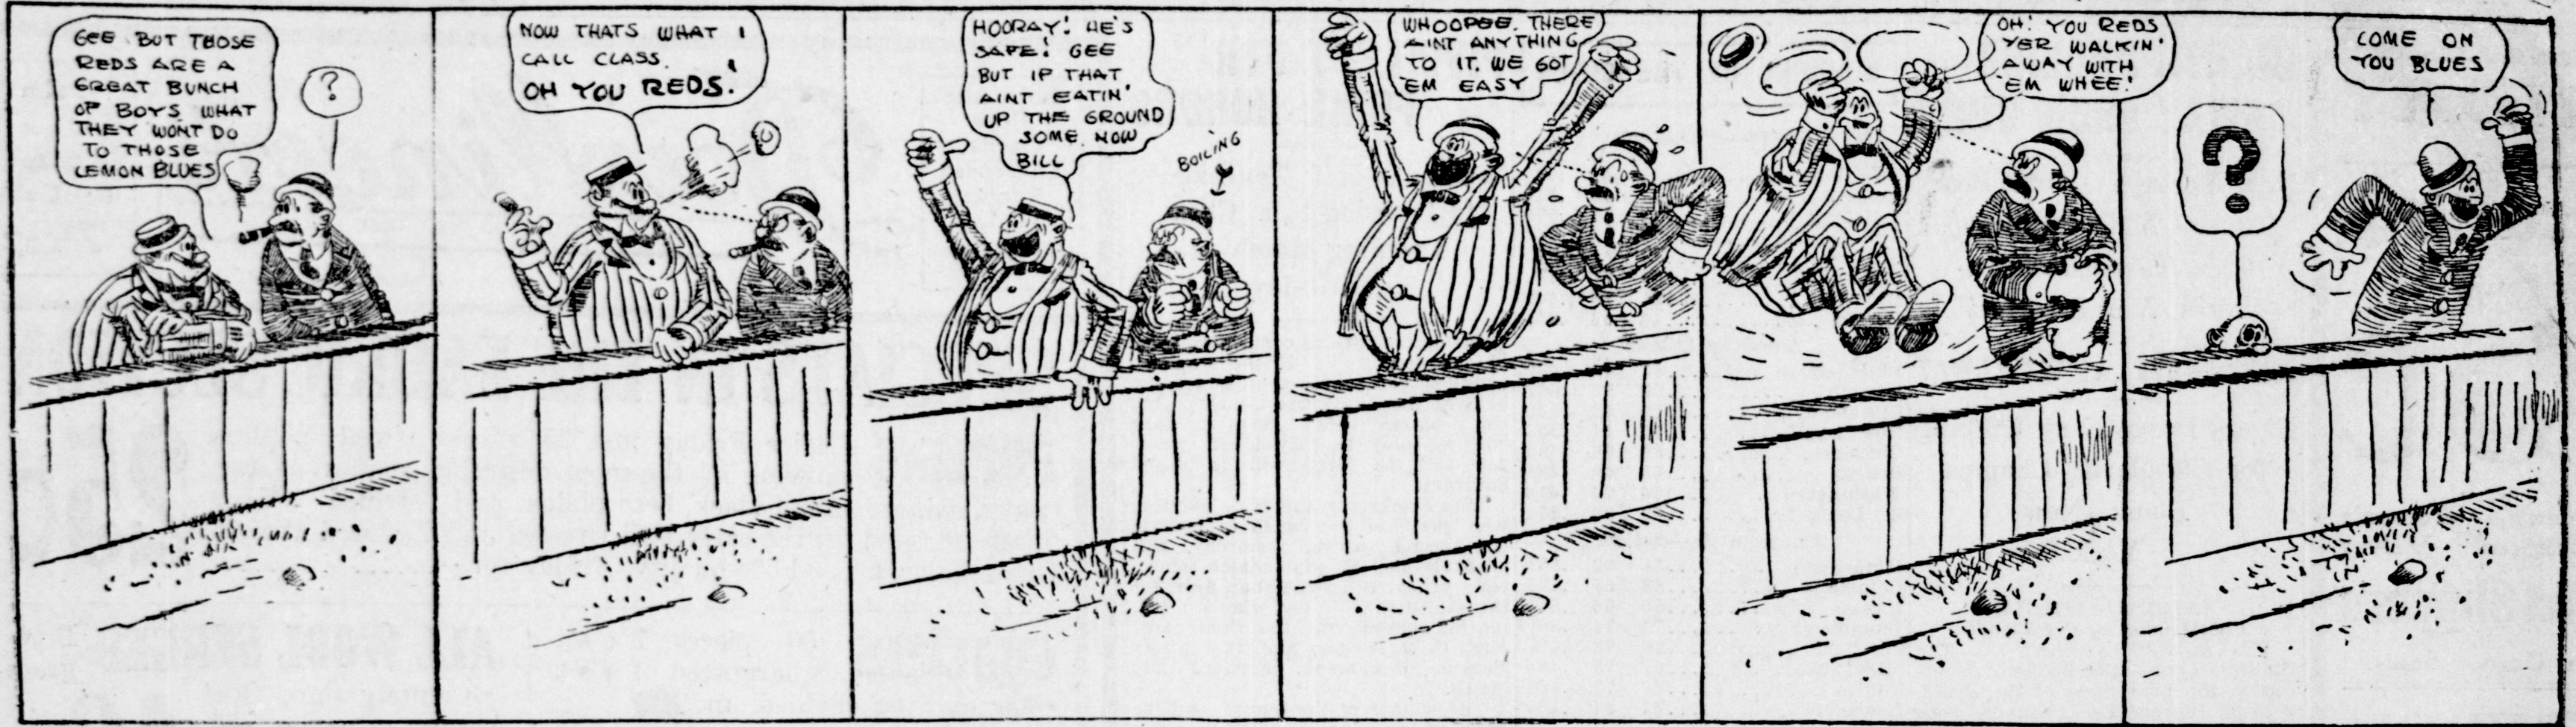

"Some good democrats have been deceived by the 'harmony' cry. They want HARMONY. Wall street is bribing the corruptible, tooling the gullible and frightening the timid. Strange that any can be misled. HARMONY means to halt. HARMONY will cost the party its chances of success. We have not had HARMONY in the party for fifteen years but we have seen the progressive element of the party dominating the political thought of the country and it is ready to sweep the country. Shall we turn over the fighting to the progressive republicans? The Wall street crowd will be at the next convention as usual to sell HARMONY at wholesale at the regular price, namely, the betrayal of the public. What we need is not HARMONY but a straightforward fight for principle in behalf of the public—such a fight will win."

dow and carried her away, but he could not remember what became of it. He thought that it was lost somewhere between the place where he laid her down and the lake shore. She did not have on an undershirt, as Mrs. Lemberger stated, Johnson said. At least he didn't remember of seeing any undershirt. Johnson emphatically declared that he did not ravish the child and did not attempt it.

Grain Letter

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Soon after the markets opened today weakness developed as the result of bearish foreign conditions in the wheat trade.

September and December dropped ½ and ¼ respectively by noon. Northwest markets showed fair degree of firmness on early trade. Even Winnipeg was firm and higher following large receipts yesterday. The cause of firmness in the northwest is a return of wet weather over the spring wheat country.

Remarkably strong opening was reported in corn with the September contracts again leading the advance. By noon, however, September and December had dropped ¼. The cable was very strong, both stock corn and futures, and local receipts were smaller at 2½c. Cash corn outlook was bullish but leaders appear willing to bring about temporary reaction.

Oats naturally followed the easier feeling in wheat and corn but at noon trading in September and December had dropped.

The Giants jumped up another rung of the pennant ladder when Leon Ames limbered up against Boston, allowing only three hits and taking the game, 4 to 1.

With nineteen points between them and the lead, the Cubs go into Pittsburgh today for the series that will mean everything to them.

New York will have another crack at Boston today while the Cubs and Pirates clash in a double header and the hopes of the Gothamites once more are soaring.

This series probably will give Mr. Marty O'Toole, "Mayor of Pittsburgh," a chance to prove to his constituents that they made a good investment when $22,500 was paid for his mighty hurling arm.

While the world's champions yesterday licked the Highlanders again the once valiant Tigers dropped a nice one to Cleveland.

Connie Mack is already counting up the receipts of the world's series for this fall.

Eddie Plank showed world's series form when he held the Yankees to two clean hits and a scratch single.

Rube Marquardt's valuable south wing is bothering him. He will have a few days' rest in order to grease up his elbow.

It seems that frosty atmosphere is necessary to kill the jinx that trails Ames. Only twenty-six men faced him in eight innings.

Berlin's fire department costs little more $600,000 a year, or about 20 cents per inhabitant.

BOSTON, Sept. 14.—Leon Ames by masterly pitching defeated the Rustlers in the final game of the series 4 to 1. Up to the ninth inning Ames had allowed the locals but one loose tap. Women's Golf Tournament Is Drawing to a Close; Deciding Match on Saturday

Owing to weather conditions, none of the semi-finals of the women's handicap golf tournament, now being held at the La Crosse Country club were played today. However they will probably be played off tomorrow and the finals will be played Saturday.

Miss Hankerson and Miss Marston, who qualified but failed to play in the second pairing yesterday, will probably play off their match tomorrow, which will leave but four for the semi-finals. Those who are still in the running for the finals are: Mrs. J. J. Felber and the Misses Marston, Hankerson, Farrand and Smith.

The winner of the tourney will be awarded a valuable electric table lamp which has been donated by F. A. Holbrook.

GOOD SITES FOR EMBASSIES SCARCE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The state department is encountering considerable difficulty in finding suitable sites for embassy and legation sites abroad. When congress passed the bill for purchase by this government of such buildings, it named $150,000 as the maximum price which could be paid for any one building. From estimates submitted to the department it now appears that this restriction may prevent Uncle Sam owning homes for his diplomatic officers in any of the big foreign cities.

It is only at the smaller posts, it is said, that the government will be able to purchase sites within this figure. It is possible that the state department may ask congress to make an exception in certain cases to permit of extension of the law to such cities as London, Berlin, St. Petersburg, Paris and others.

STRIKE SITUATION GLOOMY, SAYS KLINE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 14.—"If E. H. Harriman were alive our difficulties with the Southern Pacific and the other Harriman railroads would be settled in a twinkling. He told me in New York shortly before his death that he was in favor of the system federation plan."

This was the statement made by International President Kline of the Blacksmiths' union, just before he boarded a train for Omaha, where the Union Pacific union leaders will hold a meeting Saturday. On the same day the leaders of the unions on the Southern Harriman lines will meet at Houston, Texas.

Kline said the prospect of a peaceful adjustment of the Harriman strike situation was gloomy. He added that a definite announcement regarding the plans of the unions would probably be made in Chicago next week.

MATCH NO FAKE, SAYS PUGILIST

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—There is $5,000 in it for the person who can show there is a frame-up in the Morris-Flynn go tomorrow night, according to Morris' manager, who is much excited over the sinister rumor that has been floating around town. Because of the rumor, Charley White was selected as referee, for sporting men agree that with White as the third man in the ring everything will be on the level.

ATWOOD WON'T COMPETE

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Declaring that it will be impossible for anyone to win the $50,000 prize for the first coast to coast flight, Harry N. Atwood, present holder of the world's long distance flying record, today withdrew from the contest. He said he had understood the conditions called for a start before October 10, not the finish as he learned today.

"This puts me out of it entirely," said Atwood, "but as a matter of fact none of these fellows has any chance at all. I have figured it all out and the least the feat can be done in is 33 days and the time limit for this race is thirty days."

CHURCH VERSUS CASH

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 13.—Whether the church or Carnegie's cash is to be the dominating influence at Randolph-Macon college here was the question which committees representing the Virginia and Baltimore Methodist conference and the board of trustees of the institution attempted to settle here. The church boards are refusing to accede to the request of the college authorities that the institution accept aid from Andrew Carnegie, owing to the stipulation of the ironmaster that the college must thereafter be conducted at non-sectarian lines.

STEFFEN TO COACH

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Members of the University of Chicago eleven were delighted today when they learned that Walter Steffen, former Maroon quarterback, has come to terms with Coach A. A. Staggs and will assist him in coaching this fall. Orville Page will have charge of the freshman team.

ONE HUNDRED NOTABLE FIGURES IN BASEBALL

No. 94—AMOS RUSIE

Who Made them Lengthen the Pitching Distance
When Amos Rusie started to pitch for the New York team, the distance between mound and home was fifty feet. After he'd been pitching a while, they lengthened the line. It was too easy for Amos. He had more curves than an Archie Gunn poster girl and he was twice as fast.

Amos won the reputation of being the speediest curve man that ever whipped over a curve. They didn't die out when the break came, but just kept on going. No doubt some of them are spinning yet. However this may be, Amos was the dealer in diamond lighting, and everybody knew it, and very few wanted any of his game, except the fans who fanned for New York and these wanted Rusie made president of the League or the United States or something. And so the strong lad went on his triumphant way until one day in a game against Chicago he ripped over a snappy jolt to first to try to catch Bill Lange napping, but instead he did something to his arm that put it out of business, and he's in Vincennes, Ind., now, and doing all his baseball in retrospect.

While he lasted he was a wonder.

He led the league in pitching in 1897, and he did many a brave thing that doesn't show on the records. From the time he was a kiddy out in Mooresville, Ind., he was baseball-foolish and baseball-mighty. When he made Indianapolis, he went to work in a lounge factory, but his real mission in life was winning games for the Never Sweats, of the City League. He started out as an outfielder but there came a time when the Nevvers' pitcher had to quit, and Amos sat in and won the game, and pitched from that time on.

Jack Glasscock, the elegant captain of the Indianapolis team, glimpsed the big young man with the marvelously short throwing arm, and made contractual talk to him, and Amos yielded and joined out with the professionals, after he had gone against Washington in an exhibition game, and cleaned up—7 to 3; and this at the tender age of seventeen years, no months. When he got down to practice with the Brush boys, he was so wild, they thought of putting him in a cage and labelling it "Caught in Borneo," but instead, they just fanned him to Burlington and tried to forget him. Amos wouldn't let them. He went into seven games and won six, losing the other by the tight score of 1 to 0. Then Brush burned up the wires, and Rusie came back to fast folks.

His first big job came against New York, and he whipped Tim Keefe to the tune of 4 to 2, and this gave him confidence and put the same into his management. After a while, he was in the topside town itself, pitching for the team he had trounced at the outset, and pitching to such purpose that New York finished second to Baltimore and when these two went into the Temple Cup series, New York romped away with four straight, and much of it was Rusie.

About this time, they got the habit of issuing Rusie extras and calling cigars after him, and somebody that had the cash and the yen for the services of a champion, set in an offer of $20,000 in real money for Amos Rusie. Andy Freedman laughed in the face of the offer, and said $50,000 wouldn't part him from his pet. He wasn't parted.

Rusie has long been out of the race, and of course there are those to say he wouldn't figure as good as aces up if he got in the game today with the heavy hitters. This is as may be. A man so speedy as to make 'em lengthen the pitching distance is entitled to a certain recognition, and not all the theoretical argument in the world can take away from Amos Rusie the credit for his many notable seasons of excellence. He was a regular Giant.

BUYING A STOVE
